

Why the war came Complete the timeline below of the events that led to the American Revolution.

Those who fought

1. Based on the information from this reading and previous class discussion, which side in the American Revolutionary War seemed to have the greatest advantage: the British or the Colonists?
_____ One reason for this was that: _____
_____

American Indians and the American Revolution

2. Some Native Americans sided with the colonists, some tried to stay neutral, and others sided with the British. Why did siding with the British seem like the best option for many of them?
_____
_____
3. In what way did the American Revolution affect the Iroquois Nation?
_____
_____
4. Why did the Delawares change sides from the colonists to the British? Should this have been a lesson for the future?
_____
_____
5. How did the British defeat affect the native Americans?
_____
_____

African Americans in the Revolutionary period

6. Explain how the idea of slavery clashed with American ideals of liberty and justice
_____
_____
7. Why did southern colonists opposed the participation of black Africans in the war effort?
_____
_____
8. How did the British play on these fears?
_____
_____

9. How did the Revolutionary War affect black Africans in the colonies?

---

---

---

---

Women in the American Revolution

10. Women played many important roles in the American Revolution. Of the following, which do you think was the most important and why?

Camp followers, Soldiers, Messengers, Manufacturers, Writers

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---